MISSIONARY TO TELL CUBA EXPERIENCES

For 12 years a missionary in Cuba, the Rev. Floyd Woodworth will tell a 7 p.m. program Sunday of his experiences trying to be an Assembly of God missionary under Fidel Castro's regime.

Mr. Woodworth will speak at the First Assembly of God Church, 11455 Burbank Blvd., North Hollywood. Castro last March accused him of being a spy for the Central Intelligence Agency, said Mr. Woodworth.

In addition to directing the Cuban Assemblies of God Bible School at Manecas, he taught in ministers' institutes and was advisor for the production of Sunday school literature. He plans to continue his ministry at Bogota, Colombia.
